

Pharmacy Council of India, New Delhi
Sponsored
Continuing Education Programme (CEP)
On
Modernizations and Training in Teaching Learning Pedagogy
January 2 to 4, 2019

The 3 days CEP at Maliba Pharmacy College was flagged with inaugural function with chief guest Dr. A R Thete, Principal of Maliba Pharmacy College Dr. Shailesh A. Shah, Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy Dr. Ashish Mishra and Organizing secretary Dr. Bhavin Vyas. Dr. Shailesh Shah welcomed the participants and delegates and also gave information about Maliba Pharmacy College. Dr. Ashish Mishra informed about CEP and its details. Dr. A R Thete highlighted the need for Teachers Training and Dr. Bhavin Vyas, Organizing Secretary for the CEP proposed the vote of thanks.

Session 1 & 2 for the day 1 were conducted by Mr. Himadri Sinha who talked on Rx: Branding as an iconic teacher.

Session 3 on day one was conducted by Dr. Mahesh Chhabria on the topic – Teaching Chemistry in Pharmacy

Session 4 on day 1 was conducted by Dr. Anuradha Joshi on the topic Creative Pedagogy applied to Pharmacy Education

Session 5 on day 1 was conducted by Dr. A R Thete on the topic Innovative teaching practices on outcome based learning: holistic approach

DAY -2

The session 1 of day 2 was delivered by Dr. R G Kothari on Student Parenting

The session 2 of day 2 was delivered by Dr .A R Thete on Outcome based assessment

The session 3 of day 2 was delivered by Dr. S A Shah on Development & Validation guideline & trouble shooting for HPLC method

DAY 3

The session 1 & 2 of day 3 was delivered by Dr. Krishna Iyer on Experiential Learning

The session 3 of day 3 was delivered by Dr. Mrudula Bele on Teaching Human Rights Angle of IPR and Access to Medicines

The valedictory function was presided by Dr. Krishna Iyer in which certificates were distributed to all participants, feedback was taken from few participants and vote of thanks was given by Dr. Pranav Shah. The programme ended with national anthem.

