

KRISHNOTSAV IN MALIBA

To celebrate pious occasion of Janmashtami, students of Maliba Pharmacy College gathered the big lot of enthusiasm and excitement to relish the festival on September 4th in college itself. The arrangement was done by B.Pharm final year with the guidance of their faculties. Celebration started with morning assembly where the announcement of event was done. The theme was religious and hence everyone was dressed in traditional wear. Rangoli was made by some girls at admin office to welcome all the guest .Various competitions were arranged in different classrooms and labs and all activities were well managed by respective coordinators. Who is Krishna and mythological quiz were plot twisting events and attracted a large number of participants (Name of competitions with their location,time and winners is given in the table.)In noon session, after girls matkifod, everyone came together to do aarti of Lord Krishna m Dr D R Shah did aarti where all the students and faculties chanted Krishna's name and sang aarti. Following it there was lunch held of pavbhaji and later on the finale competition that boysmatkifod took place. Also wonderful skit was performed by freshman year students on importance of Janmashtmi. Every one advanced to the ground of MPC for RaasGarba around 3:30 pm. Multiple whorls were formed by teachers as well as students to depict the RaasLeela of Krishna. Everyone was chorusing and dancing their heart out till 5:00pm till it was time for buses to depart.
