

REPORT ON TEACHER'S DAY 2022

Teacher's Day is celebrated on 5th September every year in the honour of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan; who was a scholar, an exemplary teacher and a politician. Maliba Pharmacy College celebrated Teacher's Day on 5th September 2022 to commemorate his birth anniversary.

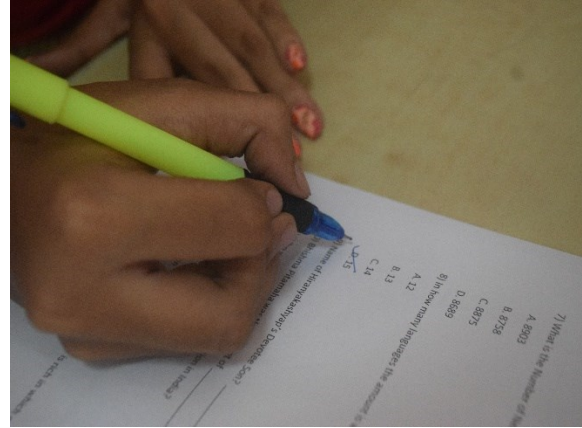

The students of 4th year B. Pharm and Pharm. D had enthusiastically organized the event under the guidance of cultural committee - Dr. Ditixa Desai and Mr. Dhaval Joshi. Teacher's Day was celebrated to acknowledge the challenges, hardships, and special roles that teachers play in the students' lives.

Many students from final year B.Pharm - M.Pharm and 4th-5th year PharmD had played the role of teachers for the day and delivered lectures as well as conducted practical for their junior classes. The students who became teachers were thoroughly evaluated by the faculty members of the institute for Best Teacher competition.

Apart from this, there was quiz competition wherein 35 students had participated.

The second half of the schedule was conducted in Manjula Hall. The session commenced with recitation of UTU anthem, followed by felicitation of the teachers by students as a symbol of affection and respect. Dr. Shailesh Shah, Principal, Maliba Pharmacy College and Dr. Ashish Mishra, Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy blessed and inspired the students through their words of motivation and wisdom.

To give an auspicious beginning, the final year B. Pharm student Yashmi Vasani performed graceful dance on Ganesh Vandana. Thereafter, Pharm. D students Rabab Rangwala and Dhvani Adhvaryu had delivered a speech to express their gratitude towards teachers. Mr. Dhaval Joshi, Assistant Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice entertained the audience with a melodious song.

The highlight of the celebration was an acknowledging speech of Ms. Yashmi Vasani and Ms. Urvi Trivedi about the teachers while Mr. Arham Shah, 3rd year Pharm. D student sang a soulful song.

Final year students also showed a documentary highlighting the memorable and endearing moments of faculties followed by a group song.

The final round of quiz competition comprising of four teams was conducted, which was an interesting and brain storming event.
