The 77th Independence Day of India will mark the finale of the Azaadi ka Amrit Mahotsav program. PM Shri Narendra Modi suggested the 'Meri Maati Mera Desh' campaign giving true value to its tagline 'Mitti ko naman, veeron ka vandan.' According to the campaign website, "the nationwide campaign will celebrate the achievements of the nation and Bravehearts." For celebration of this event, Maliba Pharmacy College NSS unit has asked its volunteers to collect their homeland mitti and taking pledge in memory of martyrs.

This campaign this year will promote 'Jan Bhagidari' by conducting different programs and events at village, Panchayat, Block, Urban Local Body, State and National levels. Prime Minister in his Mann Ki Baat Episode 103 said, "Under this, many programs will be organized across the country in the memory of our immortal martyrs.

Entire event was planned and executed by Mr. Dhaval Joshi and Mr. Samaresh Pal Roy, both are faculty members of MPC and NSS unit leader Mr. Nayan Patel (Seventh Sem B. Pharm) and Ms. Vishweshwari Chauhan (Seventh Sem B. Pharm).
