

Report on National Youth Day

National Youth Day is celebrated across India on January 12th to commemorate the birthday of Swami Vivekananda, a great philosopher and spiritual leader. The day is dedicated to the youth, encouraging them to channel their energy and enthusiasm towards positive avenues. Maliba Pharmacy College organized a vibrant celebration on this auspicious occasion, featuring various activities such as skit performances and story-telling sessions.

The day commenced with an array of skit performances at various locations presented by the students of Maliba Pharmacy College. Total 12 students (10- Female, 2- Male) from B.Pharm, M.Pharm and PharmD had participated in the activity. The skits were thoughtfully crafted to reflect the values and teachings of Swami Vivekananda, focusing on themes like education, youth empowerment, and social responsibility. The performances showcased the creativity and talent of the students, while also delivering important messages to inspire their peers.

Following the skit performances, students were engaged in captivating story-telling sessions. Participants shared anecdotes and narratives that highlighted the significance of youth in shaping the future of the nation. The stories were not only entertaining but also carried moral and motivational messages, encouraging the audience to strive for excellence and contribute positively to society.

The enthusiasm among the students was palpable throughout the event. The active participation of both performers and the audience contributed to the lively atmosphere. The students demonstrated a keen interest in understanding the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and their relevance in today's context.

Here are some glimpses of the events:

