

Guest Lecture by Dr. Bhargavi Desai

Date – 19th September 2025

Audience : Pharm.D 1st to 5th year and B.Pharm final year

Organized by: Maliba Pharmacy College

Venue: SRIMCA Hall

Agenda : 5th National Pharmacovigilance Week Celebration

On the occasion of the 5th National Pharmacovigilance Week, a guest lecture was organized on 19th September 2025 at Maliba Pharmacy College. The session was graced by our esteemed alumna, Dr. Bhargavi Desai, who currently serves as the Founder of Elohveeda Services. Dr. Bhargavi holds extensive experience in clinical research, including the designing of clinical and preclinical toxicology protocols. She is also highly proficient in Biostatistics, data analysis, and statistical interpretation using SPSS and R software. Her organization, Elohveeda Services, provides specialized clinical services in pharmacovigilance, medical writing, clinical trial protocol designing, sample size calculation, and regulatory documentation.

The session commenced with the traditional lamp lighting ceremony, led by Dr. Bhargavi Desai, accompanied by Dr. Ashish Mishra (Principal, Dr. Chunibhai Vallabhbhai Patel College of Pharmacy) and Dr. Shrikant Joshi (Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacology, Maliba Pharmacy College). Dr. Bhargavi began the lecture with the theme “Evolving Landscape of Pharmacovigilance: Traditional to Modern Practices.” The session provided insightful knowledge covering the entire spectrum — from basic ADR reporting to advanced applications of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in pharmacovigilance. She also highlighted the regulatory aspects of ADR reporting and shared her professional experiences, which gave students valuable exposure to real-world practices in the field.

The interactive session proved to be extremely beneficial for Pharm.D and B.Pharm final-year students, enhancing their understanding of the importance and future scope of pharmacovigilance in healthcare and research. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Bhargavi Desai for her valuable time and inspiring lecture.
