ALUMNI VISIT REPORT

Date – 8th September 2026
Audience : B.Pharm Sem 3
Organized by: Maliba Pharmacy College
Venue: DG13
Agenda : College visit
Designation – Product manager

Mr. Ankit Ramani, an alumnus of the 2017–2018 batch, visited the college on 03 September 2026 after nearly eight years. He is currently working as a Product Manager at Rosefinch Pharmaceuticals Private Limited, Amreli, Gujarat, a pharmaceutical manufacturing company involved in the manufacturing of tablets, capsules, and liquid dosage forms.

During his visit, he interacted with the Semester III students and shared his professional experience and insights regarding the pharmaceutical industry. He discussed the various roles and responsibilities of professionals working in the pharmaceutical industry and explained the importance of applying academic knowledge in practical industrial settings. He also highlighted the significance of developing technical knowledge, communication skills, teamwork, discipline, problem-solving abilities, and professional competence for building a successful career in the pharmaceutical sector.

The interaction was informative and engaging, and the students benefited from his first-hand experience and understanding of the industry. One of the most memorable aspects of his visit was his interaction with the faculty members who had taught him during his college days. After eight years, Mr. Ramani expressed great happiness and enthusiasm in revisiting his alma mater and meeting his former teachers.

He warmly interacted with the faculty members and recalled his college experiences and memories, making the visit a nostalgic and memorable occasion. His visit reflected the strong bond between an alumnus and his institution and demonstrated the lasting impact of the college and its faculty on students' academic and professional journeys.

Overall, the visit of Mr. Ankit Ramani was memorable for faculty members. His interaction provided students with valuable exposure to the pharmaceutical industry's professional environment and motivated them to prepare themselves for future career opportunities. The college appreciates Mr. Ramani for taking the time to revisit the institution, interact with the students, and reconnect with his former faculty members. The visit strengthened the alumni–institution relationship and encouraged continued engagement between the college and its alumni for the academic and professional development of students.

Principal Signature : Dr. Ashish D Mishra