Uka Tarsadia University

Maliba Pharmacy College

Report on Orientation Program 2026 [Pharm D]

Date: 24th September to 27th September 2026

Venue: Savita auditorium

Time: 8:30 am onwards

Total No of Participants: 27

Event Coordinator: Ms. Mitali Patel, Ms. Shreya Patel, Ms. Manali Italiya

Program objectives:

- To Familiarize students with the vision, mission and values of MPC the culture of the institution
- Help students navigate the UTU campus and identify the resources available.
- To provide students with an overview of the B. Pharm curriculum, academic regulations, and examination patterns.
- To offer insights into the pharmacy profession, career opportunities, and the role of a pharmacist in healthcare.
- To inform students about various support services such as counseling, mentorship, and skill developments programs available at the college.
- To instill a sense of professional ethics, integrity and discipline required in the pharmacy field.
- To encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities that promote holistic development and foster teamwork, leadership, and personal growth.
- To create opportunities for students to interact with faculty members, senior's students, and alumni for guidance and mentorship.

Program outline:

Sr. No.	Session	Activity
1	Pre-Orientation Activities	Reporting and Registration
2	Opening Session	Welcome Address by College Principal
3	Academic Overview	Introduction to Academic Departments Explanation of Course Structure, Curriculum & Grading System Overview of College Policies & Code of Conduct
4	Student Support Cells	Library & IT Service Introduction Counselling & Health support Career Guidance & Placement Cell Overview
5	Extracurricular & Campus Life	Introduction to Student Clubs, Sport & Cultural Activities
6	Safety & Security Briefing	Anti-Ragging & Anti-Harassment Policies

The orientation program started with a welcome address to students, parents, dignitaries, and faculty, followed by the UTU anthem.

Welcome Address:

Dr. Ashish Mishra, Principal, MPC, Faculty of Pharmacy, welcomed the students and; highlighted the importance of the pharmacy profession, its growing opportunities, and the academic Values at UTU.

Academic Overview:

The introduction to the Pharmacy Department featured insightful session from various department heads, providing an overview of key disciplines within the field;

Dr. Pintu Prajapati (Department of Quality Assurance) explained the role of quality control, regulatory requirements, and maintaining pharmaceutical product standards.

Dr. Vilas Surana (Department of Pharmacognosy): Highlighted the study of medicinal plants and natural substances in drug discovery.

Dr. Hetal Patel (Departments of Pharmaceutics) explained the department's focus on dosage from design and drug delivery systems, emphasizing theoretical and practical training in pharmaceutical formulation and manufacturing.

Dr. Shrikant Joshi (Department of Pharmacology) discussed how drugs interact with biological systems, covering topics like pharmacodynamics, pharmacokinetics, toxicology.

Dr. Sandesh Lodha (Department of quality Assurance) focused on drug design, synthesis, and chemical analysis, stressing the importance of organic, and medicinal chemistry in drug development.

Examinations & Academic Integrity: Dr. Hetal Patel and Mrs. Hiral Solanki outlined the examination framework, marking schemes, and the importance, and the importance of maintaining academic integrity while guiding students on available study resources.

Following the sessions, students visited various departments of the colleges as part of ab educational tour. They explored different academic sections, library, laboratories and recreational areas.

Student Support Cells

Placement Cell: Dr. Pratik Tailor and Mr. jigal Hirawala Discussed internship opportunities, job placements, and career counselling, explaining how industry connections help students secure employment.

Extracurricular & Campus Life

Sports Activities: Mr. Rahul Jha and Mr. Hiren Rathod highlighted the significance of physical fitness encouraged students to participate in various sporting events, detailing the institute's sports facilities.

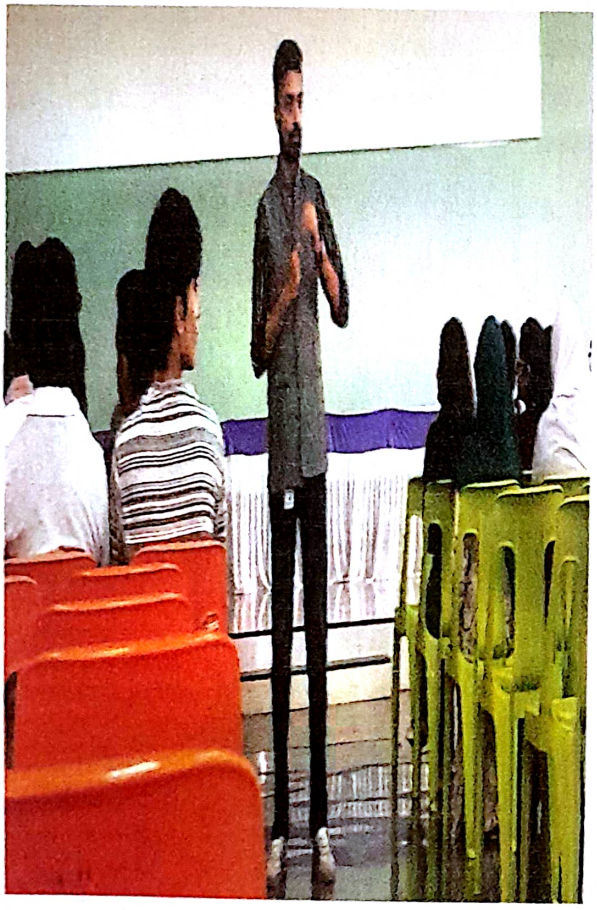

Cultural Activities: Ms. Yashwini Kansara and Dr. Drashti Shukla spoke about cultural events, including music, dance, drama, and art competitions, encouraging students to join clubs and participate in intercollegiate events.

Mr. jay Bhatiya and Mr. Abhishek Joshi provide an overview of the National Service scheme (NSS) Cell, which promotes community service and social outreach programs. He encouraged students to participate in NSS activities, which not only contribute to societal well-being but also foster holistic personal growth through active social engagement.

Safety & Security Briefing:

Women's Cell & Committee against Harassment: Mrs. Hiral Solanki and Mrs. Ami Vyas Emphasized the importance of these committees in ensuring a safe and supportive environment for students, particularly focusing on women's welfare and protection against harassment.

Grievance Redressal cell and Anti-Ragging Cell: Mr. Kavit Patel, Ms. Anjali Patel educate students on anti-ragging policies, legal consequences, and the importance of a safe and inclusive campus, encouraging students to report any incidents.

Program outcome:

- Students gained a clear understanding of the college layout, facilities, and key departments through tours and interactive sessions.
- Freshers were introduced to the institution's history, mission, and values, fostering a sense of belonging and commitment.
- Students were made aware of their curriculum, grading system, academic policies, and available learning resources, ensuring a smooth transition to college studies.
- Students were guided about library resources, IT services, counseling, career guidance, and mental health support, enabling them to seek help when needed.
- Students were encouraged to participate in clubs, sports, and cultural activities, enhancing their holistic development and interpersonal skills.
- Students were informed about campus safety measures, emergency protocols, anti-ranging policies, and health guidelines to ensure a safe and secure learning environments.

Prepared by: Ms. Mitali Patel, Ms. Shreya Patel, Ms. Manali Italiya

Signature of Principal:

1.Dr. Ashish D. Mishra, Principal, Maliba Pharmacy College

Principal
Maliba Pharmacy College
Gopal Vidyanagar
Tal. Mahuva, Dist. Surat